

THE TALBOT, RIPLEY

The Venue

The Talbot has for centuries played its part in history. It is said to have provided the stage for Lord Nelson and Lady Hamilton's love affair to blossom in 1798, and remains one of England's finest coaching inns.

Conveniently located within 10 minutes of both Guildford and Woking, The Talbot provides a great alternative to traditional hotels or purpose-built conference centres for meetings and events. Just a couple of miles from J10 of the M25 and only half an hour from London.

Food & Drink

Overlooking the south facing garden, our restaurant has a contemporary feel. Our Head chef and his team have years of experience in creating simple British timeless dishes and use the very best British and local ingredients.

Our cozy bar with low ceilings and open fires offers an ideal spot to relax after a long day with one of our local beers, wines or spirits. On summer nights enjoy sitting in our south facing garden.

All special diets and menus can be catered for.
